A MINISTER RESIGNS.

Rev. John Gailey, Well Known in Canton, Involved in a Scandal.

It is Claimed Whiskey Was Found on His Person-A Lady Who Takes a Great Deal of Interest in the Eloquent Min-

Rev. John Galley, an eloquent minister at Millersburg, has resigned, and a big scandal is the result. The reverend gentlemen is well-known in Canton, and the following special from Millersburg, will be read with much interest here: Rev. John Gailey, of the United Presbyterian church resigned his charge here yesterday, giving as a reason "failing health, inadequate salary" and dissatisfaction on the part of some of the members over the building of a new church, costing something over $3,000. The charges made against him a week or two ago in the Ohio Patriot of being drunk in New Lisbon during his recen visit to that town and which gained general circulation here had much to do with his resignation now. Additional evidence going to show that the charge made by the Patriot is true has been received, which shows that a quart bottle labeled "whiskey" and which had left in it about a gill was found in his possession.

A similar charge was made against him two or more years ago, while he was preaching here, as having happened at Belleville, but his church refused to believe it and our people generally took up the cudgel in his defense. He simply says in this case, as he did in the other, that he is "not guilty."

Mr. Galley has been a prominent figure in society here. He is a bachelor of a very sociable disposition, an excellent conve sationalist and the most eloquent preacher

The recent evidence from New Lisbon develops that Mr. Gailey is paying attention to a lady who took so much interest in the report of his trouble over there that she sent her physician to see him at the hotel to learn the cause of the trouble, and was informed accordingly. was informed accordingly.

This brings to the surface the wellknown fact that he has been laying siege to the affections of one of Milleraburg's leading young ladies also for at least two years

An investigation will undoubtedly take place before the proper tribunal of the church, when the matter will be settled one way or the other.

HE WANTED TO DIE.

Suicide this Morning.

He Takes Poison While in Dr. Barr's Drug Store.

At the Hour of Going to Press He Is Still Alive-His Chances for Recovery Are Very Slim-Cause of the Rash Act. Charles Slusser, a tinner residing on East North street, swallowed a quantity Dr. Barr's drug store, and his recovery is very doubtful. "Give me some bedbug poison. Give me something that will kill the bugs. I got some at Nye's the other day and it wasn't strong enough," said Chas. Sluser, about 11:30 this morning as he entered Barr's drug store on East Tuscararawas street. "What will you have me put up" asked the clerk. "Give me something that will kill them. Give me some strychnine. James Sieling, the clerk, put up a botle of corrosive sublimate and labeled it 'Bed Bug Poison." The bottle was a arge one and contained about six ounces of the deadly fluid.

He handed it to Slusser, who told him to make out a bill for his father, Samuel Slusser. "I can't do that; I can't let you have the medicine then," said the cierk. "I am sorry," remarked Slusser, "but I havn't the money to pay for it, now."

Saying this Slusser extracted the cork from the bottle, and holding it up to his mouth, he quickly poured about six drachms down his throat.

The clerk ran out and grabbed the bottle from him, led him out back of the store where he quickly procured an egg and gave it to him.

"Let me die," said Shusser; "I don't want to live; let me alone."

After the egg had been administered, Sieling summoned help and several men who responded marched him up to police headquarters.

When police headquarters was reached Drs. Foulk's and E. O. Morrow were called and a stomach pump applied.

He was at last persunded to take the milk, though not without some resistance on his part.

When Slusser was seated in the head-quarters, his uncle, David Zollars, came up and asked him whether he should call his father, "No; I want to die," said Slusser. Shisser.

The Alliance Review has the following in regard to the case: A number of years ago John Farrington, of Smith township, married the sister of Amos Fox, she being his third wife, Of late their domestic relations have been none of the pleasantest, and on the lath of July they agreed to a separation. Mrs. Farrington came to her brother's home in this city, bringing with her several hundred dollars. Shortly afterward Mrs. Metzgar, another sister of Amos Fox, went to visit Mrs. Farrington, and remained several days. He spoke to her about $480 he had in his possession, and they agreed that one of them should be at the house all the time until the mone should be safely disposed of. After day's absence Mr. Farrington was almos distracted over the discovery that the noney was missing, with no clue to its whereabouts. Mrs. Metzgar denied all knowledge of the theft, but the next day had very pressing business in town that took her to her brother's residence. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Mrs. Metzgar.

He is a young man between 17 and 1 years of age. Marshal Gentry had an ex tended interview with him, when he broke down and confessed to the whole trans action, implicating others. He says tha be and two companions robbed the wagon and planted the goods in another part of the county. He told where the goods were located, and gave the names of the other parties. The officers are in search of the goods and the guilty parties.

Haupt in his statement implicated two young men of Malvern and stated the goods were at that place. Officer Romy went there on the early train this morn-ing. This afternoon Marshal Gentry re-ceived a telegram from Officer Romy, stating that no such persons were there, and the goods could not be found. THE PICNIC SHOOTING.

John H. Danner Writes a Letter to His Parents.

Full Particulars of the Killing of Miss Mand Kendatt,

He Thought the Revolver Was Not Loaded-Much Dolay in Octting a Doctor-The Young Man Not Arrested.

The article in Saturday's News-Desc CHAT, regarding the shooting of Miss Maud Kendall, at Beaver Falls, by John of poison shortly before noon to-day, in H. Danner, of Canton, caused a great deal of talk in this city, Mrs. Danner, mother of the unfortunate oy, went to Heaver Falls, Saturday, and will return tonight. It is learned that the shooting was purely accidental, and it is not likely any trouble will be made for oung Danner.

He resided with his parents at 122 High street, while in Canton, and was well and favorably known in this city. His many friends were pained to learn of the ur fortunate affair, and all will be glad t know he was not to blame for the acci dent, except that he might have been little careless in handling the revolver.

DANNER WRITES TO HIS PARENTS. The following letter has been received from the young man; BEAVER FALLS, PA., Aug. 3, 1800.

DEAR PATHER AND MOTHER:-I WELL ou these few lines, to let you know how the shooting of Maud Kendall was done Maud was a Simday school teacher in the First M. E. Church. ANOTHER ACCOUNT OF THE SHOOTING. ANOTHER ACCOUNT OF THE SHOOTISG.

The New Brighton News has the following in regard to the shooting, which was published before the young lady died:

An accident which may terminate seriously, happened at a pienic at Bennett's run yesterday afternoon. Miss Mand Kendall of this city, aged about 19 years, took her Sunday school class to Henett's run yesterday to enjoy a pichic. It seems that during the afternoon they were joined by two or three young men who were after berries. ere after berries.

FOUND A REVOLVER.

One of the young men, it is alleged found a 32 calibre revolver and gave it i John Danner who took it under the sup position, as he states, that it was one tha he young people composing the party ha-seen using in the rehearsal of the "Con-tederate Spy" which they propose soon to produce. Danner was sitting down at the time, and placing the revolver over his knee, began working with the lock. By some means the weapon was discharged the ball striking Miss Kendall in the lef breast and passing upwards to the shoulder where it lodged. The wounder girl exclaimed that she was shot and the flow of blood told too true that she had

DELAY IN GETTING A DOCTOR.

Danner attempted to stop the flow of blood by pressing a handkerchief over the wound until a physician arrived. As soon as arrangements could be made Miss Ken-dall was taken to the house of a family named Martin about 300 yards away, which distance she was able to walk. An effort was made to get a horse so that one of the narty could go to town for the doceffort was made to get a horse so that one of the party could go to town for the doctor, but it is said no one living in that locality would loan one, Ed. Whittish happened to be passing late in the evening and learned of the accident, sent Dr. Grim out. Another of the party by this time, had notified Dr. Kring who also went out. The wound though painful may not prove fatal, as first reported. ported.

THE YOUNG MAN VERY SORRY, Danner appears very sorry for what has appened and went before Justice Piper where he made a statement which is so stantially as above related. At this writing, Miss Kendall is still at Bennett's Run, being unable to be removed. It's thought that while the shooting was the result of slight carelessness, and purely accidental, the story of the finding of the revolver is a myth and that it belonged to some of the party present, though not to Danner, The accident happened at 10 'clock, and it was fully 6 o'clock before medical help came.

Special to the News-Democrat.

BEAVER FALLS, Aug. 4.—The funeral of Maud Kendall, who was accidently killed by John Danner of Canton on Thursday last, took place yesterday, (Sunday) and was very largely attended. The accident has cast a gloom over the whole com munity where the unfortunate young lady was well known. There are no additional developments in the case. The coroner deemed an inquest not necessary, and it is not likely that young Danner will be arrested The latter and his mother attended the funeral. The young man regrets deeply the sad affair. Excitement reigned supreme in this city ast night, and it assumed such formida-de proportions as to cause grave appro-pension that a physical conflict would be precipitated between the civil and military authorities.

The causes leading up to the threatening condition of affairs are spitomized as follows: The Eighth Regiment, O. N. G., went into camp here last Tuesday, and since their advent Robert Skinner, editor of the Independent, has done the repertorial work incidental to the camp for his paper, giving the boys about two columns of space daily.

GAUSE OF THE TROUBLE.

In Thursday's issue he used this language in a paragraph devoted to First Lieutenant Cameron, who is in command of Co. D. of Wooster. "The well drilled Wooster boys deserve considerable sympathy for being in command of Lieutenant Cameron, who has not been in condition since he arrived here, to assume command of anything, not even binself," and added the fact that City Marshal Wendling had knocked Cameron down wies in front of a disorderly house. The Wooster boys did not take any particular offense at that.

Archie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hartzell, Berlin Center, whose unpleasant family affairs have been frequently sired in the Mahoning ounty courts. Following a division of he property which was ordered by the ourt, S. G. Mell acted as auctioneer at a sale of some of the goods belonging to George Hartzell. After the sale was conduded Mr. Hartsell remarked that he had a buggy that he wanted to sell, and as Mr. Mell thought he saw a bargain in it, he bought it himself at private sale. The suggy was brought home to Alliance, but finding that he did not have room for it in his barn at the time, he secured per-mission of Mrs. Waugh, a relative of Mr. Hartzell, to leave it in their barn. In the meantime Archie, who has always sided with his mother in the family disputes had heard of the disappearance of the uggy, and as he claimed an interest in it buggy, and as he claimed an interest in it through his mother, he commencest looking matters up. He first went to A. J. Woolf, their Youngstown attorney, and after telling his site of the story, was advised by Woolf to secure possession of the buggy at the earliest opportunity, Young tartrell at once came over to Alliance, and for the last two weeks has een lying around walting for an oppor-unity to secure the property. In some manner young Hartsell finally carned that the buggy was at the Wahigh sen, and Saturday night he broke in the stable and secured it, being compelle to back out two other buggies first. Sun-day morning Honry Waugh informed Mr. Mell of the theft, and, as young Hartzell day morning Henry Waugh informed Mr.

Meil of the theft, and, as young Hartzell was at once suspected, a warrant was made out for his arrost.

Marshal Stacy secured him yesterday afternoon, and the hearing was held last evening. Hartzell insisted that he had been advised by his attorney to secure possession of the buggy, and said he did not know it had been sold to Mr. Meil.
He thought that it had been brought over

Owing to the peculiar circumstances in the case both Mayor Stillwell and Mr. Mell were disposed to let the boy off as easily as possible, and negotiations had been about completed for a satisfactory compromise of the case, when the Salom attorney of the accused put in an appearance and kneeked it all in the bead. He insisted that the young man plead not guilty and waive a hearing and as a result of his rather singular advice Hartzell was bound over to common pleas court. His 8200 bond was signed by Dr. Tressel and S. Shimp.

A call was made at Nye's drug store and it was learned that Sinsser had never purchased any bedfug poison there.

James Sieling, the druggist at Harr's, said this morning: "I did not know when the man came in that he was draink, but when he had taken the poison and was voniting. I first notices that is was instoxicated. Had I known that I would not have given him the bedfug poison. When Sinsser was out in the back yard he said to me, 'you are a gentleman."

Immediately after taking the poison he said, 'My God! how it burns." I think there were about 30 grains of corrosive sublimate in the solution, and it would have been sufficient to kill several men."

The condition of Slusser late this afternoon is very critical, and Dr. Beerbele, the attending physician, says he will probably not recover.
